The District is committed to participatory governance principles, designed to guide wise decision-making supporting the strategic plan, Board ends policies and governance principles and the mission, vision and values of the district.

The Administrative and Governance Handbook describes the procedures for participation in local decision making and governance.

This handbook is reviewed annually and updated as needed by the District Council following analysis of the Spring evaluation of the effectiveness of the governance process. Changes to the governance process are subject to the recommendation of the District Council prior to the District Chancellor approval.

The handbook is posted on the district Web page.
