Form W-4 (2018)

Future developments. For the latest information about any future developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2018 if both of the following apply.
- For 2017 you had a right to a refund of all federal income tax withheld because you had no tax liability, and
- For 2018 you expect a refund of all federal income tax withheld because you expect to have no tax liability.

If you're exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2018 expires February 15, 2019. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax, to learn more about whether you qualify for exemption from withholding.

General Instructions

If you aren't exempt, follow the rest of these instructions to determine the number of withholding allowances you should claim for withholding for 2018 and any additional amount of tax to have withheld. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

You can also use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to determine your tax withholding more accurately. Consider using this calculator if you have a more complicated tax situation, such as if you have a working spouse, more than one job, or a large amount of nonwage income outside of your job. After your Form W-4 takes effect, you can also use this calculator to see how the amount of tax you're having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2018. If you use the calculator, you don't need to complete any of the worksheets for Form W-4.

Note that if you have too much tax withheld, you will receive a refund when you file your tax return. If you have too little tax withheld, you will owe tax when you file your tax return, and you might owe a penalty.

Filers with multiple jobs or working spouses. If you have more than one job at a time, or if you're married and your spouse is also working, read all of the instructions including the instructions for the Two-Earners/Multiple Jobs Worksheet before beginning.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you might owe additional tax. Or, you can use the Deductions, Adjustments, and Other Income Worksheet on page 3 or the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Separate here and give Form W-4 to your employer. Keep the worksheet(s) for your records.

Specific Instructions

Personal Allowances Worksheet

Complete this worksheet on page 3 first to determine the number of withholding allowances to claim.

Line C. Head of household please note: Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you’re unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual. See Pub. 501 for more information about filing status.

Line E. Child tax credit. When you file your tax return, you might be eligible to claim a credit for each of your qualifying children. To qualify, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31 and must be your dependent, who lives with you for more than half the year. To learn more about this credit, see Pub. 972, Child Tax Credit. To reduce the tax withheld from your paycheck by taking this credit into account, follow the instructions on line E of the worksheet. On the worksheet you will be asked about your total income. For this purpose, total income includes all of your wages and other income, including income earned by a spouse, during the year.

Line F. Credit for other dependents. When you file your tax return, you might be eligible to claim a credit for each of your dependents that don’t qualify for the child tax credit, such as any dependent children age 17 and older. To learn more about this credit, see Pub. 505. To reduce the tax withheld from your paycheck by taking this credit into account, follow the instructions on line F of the worksheet. On the worksheet, you will be asked about your total income. For this purpose, total income includes all of your wages and other income, including income earned by a spouse, during the year.

Future developments. For the latest information about any future developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

your wages and other income, including income earned by a spouse, during the year.

Line G. Other credits. You might be able to reduce the tax withheld from your paycheck if you expect to claim other tax credits, such as the earned income tax credit and tax credits for education and child care expenses. If you do so, your paycheck will be larger but the amount of any refund that you receive when you file your tax return will be smaller. Follow the instructions for Worksheet 1-6 in Pub. 505 if you want to reduce your withholding to take these credits into account.

Deductions, Adjustments, and Additional Income Worksheet
Complete this worksheet to determine if you’re able to reduce the tax withheld from your paycheck to account for your itemized deductions and other adjustments to income such as IRA contributions. If you do so, your refund at the end of the year will be smaller, but your paycheck will be larger. You’re not required to complete this worksheet or reduce your withholding if you don’t wish to do so.

You can also use this worksheet to figure out how much to increase the tax withheld from your paycheck if you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends.

Another option is to take these items into account and make your withholding more accurate by using the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App. If you use the calculator, you don’t need to complete any of the worksheets for Form W-4.

Two-Earners/Multiple Jobs Worksheet
Complete this worksheet if you have more than one job at a time or are married filing jointly and have a working spouse. If you don’t complete this worksheet, you might have too little tax withheld. If so, you will owe tax when you file your tax return and might be subject to a penalty.

Figure the total number of allowances you’re entitled to claim and any additional amount of tax to withhold on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Claim all allowances on the W-4 that you or your spouse file for the highest paying job in your family and claim zero allowances on Forms W-4 filed for all other jobs. For example, if you earn $60,000 per year and your spouse earns $20,000, you should complete the worksheets to determine what to enter on lines 5 and 6 of your Form W-4, and your spouse should enter zero (“-0-”) on lines 5 and 6 of his or her Form W-4. See Pub. 505 for details.

Another option is to use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to make your withholding more accurate.

Tip: If you have a working spouse and your incomes are similar, you can check the “Married, but withhold at higher Single rate” box instead of using this worksheet. If you choose this option, then each spouse should fill out the Personal Allowances Worksheet and check the “Married, but withhold at higher Single rate” box on Form W-4, but only one spouse should claim any allowances for credits or fill out the Deductions, Adjustments, and Additional Income Worksheet.

Instructions for Employer
Employees, do not complete box 8, 9, or 10. Your employer will complete these boxes if necessary.

New hire reporting. Employers are required by law to report new employees to a designated State Directory of New Hires. Employers may use Form W-4, boxes 8, 9, and 10 to comply with the new hire reporting requirement for a newly hired employee. A newly hired employee is an employee who hasn’t previously been employed by the employer, or who was previously employed by the employer but has been separated from such prior employment for at least 60 consecutive days. Employers should contact the appropriate State Directory of New Hires to find out how to submit a copy of the completed Form W-4. For information and links to each designated State Directory of New Hires (including for U.S. territories), go to www.acf.hhs.gov/programs/css/employers.

If an employer is sending a copy of Form W-4 to a designated State Directory of New Hires to comply with the new hire reporting requirement for a newly hired employee, complete boxes 8, 9, and 10 as follows.

Box 8. Enter the employer’s name and address. If the employer is sending a copy of this form to a State Directory of New Hires, enter the address where child support agencies should send income withholding orders.

Box 9. If the employer is sending a copy of this form to a State Directory of New Hires, enter the employee’s first date of employment, which is the date services for payment were first performed by the employee. If the employer rehired the employee after the employee had been separated from the employer’s service for at least 60 days, enter the rehire date.

Box 10. Enter the employer’s employer identification number (EIN).

YOUR CALIFORNIA PERSONAL INCOME TAX MAY BE UNDERWITHHELD IF YOU DO NOT FILE THIS DE 4 FORM.

IF YOU RELY ON THE FEDERAL FORM W-4 FOR YOUR CALIFORNIA WITHHOLDING ALLOWANCES, YOUR CALIFORNIA STATE PERSONAL INCOME TAX MAY BE UNDERWITHHELD AND YOU MAY OWE MONEY AT THE END OF THE YEAR.

PURPOSE: This certificate, DE 4, is for California Personal Income Tax (PIT) withholding purposes only. The DE 4 is used to compute the amount of taxes to be withheld from your wages, by your employer, to accurately reflect your state tax withholding obligation.

You should complete this form if either:

(1) You claim a different marital status, number of regular allowances, or different additional dollar amount to be withheld for California PIT withholding than you claim for federal income tax withholding or,

(2) You claim additional allowances for estimated deductions.

THIS FORM WILL NOT CHANGE YOUR FEDERAL WITHHOLDING ALLOWANCES.

The federal Form W-4 is applicable for California withholding purposes if you wish to claim the same marital status, number of regular allowances, and/or the same additional dollar amount to be withheld for state and federal purposes. However, federal tax brackets and withholding methods do not reflect state PIT withholding tables. If you rely on the number of withholding allowances you claim on your Form W-4 withholding allowance certificate for your state income tax withholding, you may be significantly underwithheld. This is particularly true if your household income is derived from more than one source.

CHECK YOUR WITHHOLDING: After your Form W-4 and/or DE 4 takes effect, compare the state income tax withheld with your estimated total annual tax. For state withholding, use the worksheets on this form.

EXEMPTION FROM WITHHOLDING: If you wish to claim exempt, complete the federal Form W-4. You may claim exempt from withholding California income tax if you did not owe any federal income tax last year and you do not expect to owe any federal income tax this year. The exemption is good for one year. If you continue to qualify for the exempt filing status, a new Form W-4 designating EXEMPT must be submitted by February 15 each year to continue your exemption. If you are not having federal income tax withheld this year but expect to have a tax liability next year, you are required to give your employer a new Form W-4 by December 1.
EXEMPTION FROM WITHHOLDING (continued): Under the Service Member Civil Relief Act, as amended by the Military Spouses Residency Relief Act, you may be exempt from California income tax on your wages if (i) your spouse is a member of the armed forces present in California in compliance with military orders; (ii) you are present in California solely to be with your spouse; and (iii) you maintain your domicile in another state. If you claim exemption under this act, check the box on Line 3. You may be required to provide proof of exemption upon request.

The California Employer’s Guide, DE 44, provides the income tax withholding tables. This publication may be found on the Employment Development Department (EDD) website at www.edd.ca.gov/Payroll_Taxes/Forms_and_Publications.htm. To assist you in calculating your tax liability, please visit the FTB website at www.ftb.ca.gov/individuals/index.shtml.

NOTIFICATION: If the IRS instructs your employer to withhold federal income tax based on a certain withholding status, your employer is required to use the same withholding status for state income tax withholding.

The burden of proof rests with the employee to show the correct California Income Tax Withholding. Pursuant to Section 4340-1(e) of Title 22, California Code of Regulations (CCR), the FTB or the EDD may, by special direction in writing, require an employer to submit a Form W-4 or DE 4 when such forms are necessary for the administration of the withholding tax programs.

PENALTY: You may be fined $500 if you file, with no reasonable basis, a DE 4 that results in less tax being withheld than is properly allowable. In addition, criminal penalties apply for willfully supplying false or fraudulent information or failing to supply information requiring an increase in withholding. This is provided by Section 13101 of the California Unemployment Insurance Code and Section 19176 of the Revenue and Taxation Code.
INSTRUCTIONS — 1 — ALLOWANCES*

When determining your withholding allowances, you must consider your personal situation:
— Do you claim allowances for dependents or blindness?
— Will you itemize your deductions?
— Do you have more than one income coming into the household?

TWO-EARNERS/MULTIPLE INCOMES: When earnings are derived from more than one source, underwithholding may occur. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, it is best to check the box “SINGLE or MARRIED (with two or more incomes).” Figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using only one DE 4 form. Claim allowances with one employer. Do not claim the same allowances with more than one employer. Your withholding will usually be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the DE 4 or Form W-4 filed for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed for the others.

MARRIED BUT NOT LIVING WITH YOUR SPOUSE: You may check the “Head of Household” marital status box if you meet all of the following tests:
(1) Your spouse will not live with you at any time during the year;
(2) You will furnish over half of the cost of maintaining a home for the entire year for yourself and your child or stepchild who qualifies as your dependent; and
(3) You will file a separate return for the year.

HEAD OF HOUSEHOLD: To qualify, you must be unmarried or legally separated from your spouse and pay more than 50% of the costs of maintaining a home for the entire year for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. Cost of maintaining the home includes such items as rent, property insurance, property taxes, mortgage interest, repairs, utilities, and cost of food. It does not include the individual’s personal expenses or any amount which represents value of services performed by a member of the household of the taxpayer.

INSTRUCTIONS — 2 — ADDITIONAL WITHHOLDING ALLOWANCES

If you expect to itemize deductions on your California income tax return, you can claim additional withholding allowances. Use Worksheet B to determine whether your expected estimated deductions may entitle you to claim one or more additional withholding allowances. Use last year’s FTB Form 540 as a model to calculate this year’s withholding amounts.

Do not include deferred compensation, qualified pension payments, or flexible benefits, etc., that are deducted from your gross pay but are not taxed on this worksheet.

You may reduce the amount of tax withheld from your wages by claiming one additional withholding allowance for each $1,000, or fraction of $1,000, by which you expect your estimated deductions for the year to exceed your allowable standard deduction.

*Wages paid to registered domestic partners will be treated the same for state income tax purposes as wages paid to spouses for California PIT withholding and PIT wages. This law does not impact federal income tax law. A registered domestic partner means an individual partner in a domestic partner relationship within the meaning of Section 297 of the Family Code. For more information, please call our Taxpayer Assistance Center at 1-888-745-3886.
1. Enter estimate of total wages for tax year 2018
2. Enter estimate of nonwage income (line 6 of Worksheet B)
3. Add line 1 and line 2. Enter sum
4. Enter itemized deductions or standard deduction (line 1 or 2 of Worksheet B, whichever is largest)
5. Enter adjustments to income (line 4 of Worksheet B)
6. Add line 4 and line 5. Enter sum
7. Subtract line 6 from line 3. Enter difference
8. Figure your tax liability for the amount on line 7 by using the 2018 tax rate schedules below
9. Enter personal exemptions (line F of Worksheet A x $125.40)
10. Subtract line 9 from line 8. Enter difference
11. Enter any tax credits. (See FTB Form 540)
12. Subtract line 11 from line 10. Enter difference. This is your total tax liability
13. Calculate the tax withheld and estimated to be withheld during 2018. Contact your employer to request the amount that will be withheld on your wages based on the marital status and number of withholding allowances you will claim for 2018. Multiply the estimated amount to be withheld by the number of pay periods left in the year. Add the total to the amount already withheld for 2018
14. Subtract line 13 from line 12. Enter difference. If this is less than zero, you do not need to have additional taxes withheld
15. Divide line 14 by the number of pay periods remaining in the year. Enter this figure on line 2 of the DE 4

NOTE: Your employer is not required to withhold the additional amount requested on line 2 of your DE 4. If your employer does not agree to withhold the additional amount, you may increase your withholdings as much as possible by using the “single” status with “zero” allowances. If the amount withheld still results in an underpayment of state income taxes, you may need to file quarterly estimates on Form 540-ES with the FTB to avoid a penalty.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q. WHAT IS DIRECT DEPOSIT?
A. Direct deposit permits the electronic transfer of your net pay (amount after all deductions) to your financial institution.

Q. HOW DO I SIGN UP?
A. Just complete a Direct Deposit Authorization Agreement form and return it to the District Payroll Office along with a voided blank check (for checking) or deposit slip (for savings).

Q. WHAT IS A BANK TRANSIT (ROUTING) NUMBER?
A. It identifies the financial institution and determines the transaction-posting pathway through the clearing system. The transit (routing) number always has nine digits. Below is an example of how your bank transit (routing) number is displayed on your check:

![Check Example]

Q. WHEN WILL MY PAY BE DEPOSITED?
A. Your account will normally be credited on payday. The exact time on payday may vary from bank to bank. You can call your financial institution to find out what time your funds will be available in your account.

Q. WILL I RECEIVE A PAYCHECK STUB?
A. No. For those who elect direct deposit, a hard copy paycheck stub is not available. Paycheck stubs are only accessible by logging into the District's myWeb Information Center

Q. ARE THERE ANY RESTRICTIONS ON WHICH BANK I CAN USE?
A. The only requirement is that the financial institution be a member of the National Automated Clearing House Association (NACHA). Most banks, credit unions and savings and loans are members. You can contact your financial institution to find out if they are a member of NACHA.
Q. CAN I HAVE JUST A PORTION OF MY NET PAY ON DIRECT DEPOSIT?
A. No, the entire net check amount must be deposited to no more than two checking or savings account per employee. This does not affect current voluntary deductions made to credit unions or any other voluntary deductions that you might have. Your voluntary deductions will remain the same.

Q. CAN MY PAY BE DEPOSITED TO SEVERAL ACCOUNTS?
A. Yes, the entire net check can be deposited into no more than two accounts.

Q. WHAT IF I OPEN A DIFFERENT ACCOUNT OR MOVE MY ACCOUNT TO A DIFFERENT BRANCH OF THE SAME BANK?
A. When there is a change in your account number or transit (routing) number, you must fill out a new Direct Deposit Authorization Agreement form.

Q. WHAT IF THE NAME OF MY BANK CHANGES?
A. This will usually change the routing number. Initially, the new bank will honor the former bank’s transit (routing) number. Customers are typically notified by their bank of the change. It is your responsibility to communicate these changes to District Payroll Office. If your bank no longer honors the new transit (routing) number, there can be delays in reissuing your paycheck as a live check. The reason for the delay is due to confirmation with the District’s bank that your direct deposit has been returned. Only after this confirmation, the District can reissue you a live check.

R. DOES DIRECT DEPOSIT AUTOMATICALLY STOP WHEN AN ACCOUNT IS CLOSED?
A. No, you must complete a new Direct Deposit Authorization Agreement form and submit it to the District Payroll Office to cancel your direct deposit status or change to another account. This is also true if you are opening another account with the same financial institution. Once on active direct deposit status, you should not change or close an account until the District Payroll Office has processed your Direct Deposit Authorization Agreement form. If you do close your account before the District Payroll Office processed your Deposit Authorization Agreement form, there can be delays in reissuing your paycheck as a live check. The reason for the delay is due to confirmation with the District’s bank that your direct has been returned. Only after this confirmation, the District can reissue you a live check.

Q. HOW CAN I STOP MY AUTOMATIC PAYROLL DEPOSIT?
A. Submit a new Direct Deposit Authorization Agreement form with an “X” under cancel. Ask the District Payroll Office when the cancellation will become effective.

Q. IF I HAVE OTHER ASSIGNMENTS OR JOBS WITHIN THE DISTRICT, WILL THE PAY GO TO DIRECT DEPOSIT?
A. Yes.

Q. WHEN ENROLLED IN DIRECT DEPOSIT, ARE THERE TIMES THAT I WILL RECEIVE A LIVE CHECK INSTEAD?
A. There are circumstances that a live check will be issued. Such circumstances include, but are not limited to, recalling a direct deposit, reissuing a check due to an error, late submission of a timesheet, etc.
Q. CAN MY MILEAGE AND REIMBURSEMENT CHECKS BE DIRECTLY DEPOSITED?
A. No, these checks are generated from Accounting, not Payroll.

Q. IF I'M ON DEFERRED PAY (FULL TIME INSTRUCTOR), WILL MY DEFERRED PAY CHECK BE DEPOSITED?
A. Yes, your June and July checks will be deposited as normal.

Q. WHO DO I CALL IF I HAVE QUESTIONS?
A. Please contact the District Payroll Office at 408/270-6412.
