I earned an Associate Degree in Liberal Arts and transferred to San Francisco State University where I received my Bachelor’s Degree in Sociology. I’m currently a graduate student at San José State University where I will earn an MBA this fall. I’m also working as a Talent Acquisition manager where I’m able to give back to my community by helping diverse, first-generation students like those in San José Promise. All of this would not have been possible without San José Promise.

“By ensuring that more local students are prepared for, enroll in, and graduate from college, we will diversify the Silicon Valley workforce and ensure our local economy has the skilled workers needed for 21st century jobs.”

— SJECCD Chancellor
Dr. Deborah Budd

“San José Promise reflects our city’s collective commitment to ensuring that every single San José high school student has the opportunity to continue their education and pursue a future with unlimited opportunity.”

— San José Vice Mayor
Magdalena Carrasco
